Conditions of Accreditation

Food Production (Safety) Act 2000 \Section 50

This accreditation is issued subject to the following conditions. Safe Food Production Queensland (Safe Food) may suspend or cancel this accreditation if the holder fails to comply with any of the conditions.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

1. The holder must comply with the holder's approved food safety program or management statement.
2. The holder must review the holder's approved food safety program or management statement at least annually to ensure compliance with the food safety scheme/s.
3. The holder must supply Safe Food with required information to monitor and manage food safety matters relating to the holder's activity.
4. The holder must allow an auditor to enter a place or vehicle stated in this accreditation to conduct an audit under the Food Production (Safety) Act 2000 (the Act).
5. The holder must pay the fees and charges payable under this accreditation; fee details can be found at www.safefood.qld.gov.au
6. The holder must comply with the Australia New Zealand Food Standards Code (the Code). View the Code online: www.foodstandards.gov.au/code/pages/default.aspx
7. The holder must display the accreditation sticker or certificate in a position that is able to be seen clearly by the public.

DAIRY SCHEME

8. The holder of a producer accreditation must only supply milk or dairy produce to the holder of an accreditation to process milk or dairy produce.
9. The holder must allow an accreditation holder who receives milk or dairy produce to enter an arrangement with Safe Food for the exchange of information that is required to monitor and manage food safety issues relating to the holder's produce and other business information.
10. The holder must notify the accreditation holder who receives milk or dairy produce to collect part-payment of the holder's Safe Food annual accreditation fee monthly, if not otherwise paid in full directly to Safe Food.
11. The holder must collect, and remit (monthly) part-payment of the Safe Food annual accreditation fees deducted from persons accredited for dairy producing who supply milk or dairy produce and who have not otherwise paid their annual accreditation fees in full to Safe Food. The holder is only required to collect and remit such payments where a person accredited for dairy producing has provided written authorisation to the holder to do so.

MEAT SCHEME

12. The holder who produces or processes livestock must obtain and retain evidence of:
    (a) registration as a biosecurity entity under the Biosecurity Act 2014; and
    (b) the Property Identification Code (PIC) for their place of accreditation.
13. The holder who processes meat must ensure that processed livestock meets the requirements relating to the National Livestock Identification System (NLIS) (Australia's system for the identification and tracing of livestock) and that all documentation is retained and produced upon request to a Safe Food Approved auditor.
14. The holder who processes pigs must obtain and retain for compliance purposes a PigPass National Vendor Declaration (NVD) from each supplier which:
    (a) identifies the level, significance and residue in livestock; and
    (b) ensures that holdings from which livestock are sourced comply with all relevant provisions of the Australian Standard for Hygienic Production and Transportation of Meat and Meat Products for Human Consumption (AS4696:2023).
15. The holder that processes animals and wild game carcasses for meat at a domestic processing establishment must:
    (a) obtain Safe Food approval for all individuals who are undertaking the role of a Meat Safety Officer; and
    (b) notify Safe Food immediately if they become aware a Meat Safety Officer will not be present during processing.

EGG SCHEME

16. The holder who produces eggs must obtain and retain evidence of:
    (a) registration as a biosecurity entity under the Biosecurity Act 2014; and
    (b) the Property Identification Code (PIC) for their place of accreditation.

RIGHT OF APPEAL

17. In accordance with section 126 of the Act, the holder is entitled to apply for a review of the conditions stated herein to the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal (QCAT). The application for review must:
    - be in a form substantially complying with the QCAT rules.
    - state the reasons for the application; and
    - be filed in the QCAT registry within 28 days of receipt of this Certificate of Accreditation.

Enquiries regarding the QCAT can be directed to email enquiries@qcat.qld.gov.au or telephone 1300 753 228. Further information may also be obtained from the QCAT website at www.qcat.qld.gov.au
